Isidore Newman School Continuity of Learning Plan
For Middle & Upper School Families

An essential priority of the Continuity of Learning Plan is to continue to maintain strong relationships and high expectations among students and faculty. In the case of a campus closure, Newman teaching and learning will continue through a blended model of synchronous and asynchronous engagements to ensure . . .

- Continuity of Learning
- Sense of Safety & Belonging
- Student Well-Being

Continuity of Learning Plan Expectations:

Students will . . .

- Employ their Newman-issued device or approved BYOD device for the duration of the continuity of learning plan (CLP).
- Check for coursework, agendas, updates, and reminders on iNewman by 8:15 a.m. each school day. Reminders:
  - Use iNewman as the “command center.”
  - Consult pacing guides provided by teachers for various assignments and their components.
- Follow the regular daily schedule when completing work and participating in synchronous class or advisory experiences.
- Check email regularly for announcements and important updates.
- Participate in scheduled advisory meetings.
- Utilize Zoom for synchronous school-related engagements.
- Model Core Values in all interactions while CLP is in effect.

Parents / Guardians will . . .

- Support their children in work completion and participation in synchronous school experiences.
- Receive weekly updates from teachers via Announcements on iNewman course pages.
- Utilize resources provided by teachers, advisors, counselors, and learning specialists as appropriate.
- Communicate with faculty, staff, or advisors via email and anticipate a response within 24 hours.

Essential Agreements:

1. Flexibility is key.
2. Keep Core Values in mind.
3. Use iNewman as our Learning Management System ("command center" for students).
4. Use Zoom for video conferencing to connect & discuss with group, whole class, teacher, or advisory.
