Resources for Those in Need

The following resources have been assembled to help families in need of assistance finding food, work, or financial assistance. If you know of a family experiencing shortages in these areas, please direct them to this document. For more information, or if you have any questions, please contact Newman’s Coordinator of Community Engagement, Kim Causey, at KimCausey@newmanschool.org.

City of New Orleans: Coronavirus Assistance Website
Please check this website for regularly updated resources available to residents during the COVID 19 crisis, including:

- Access to Food and Supplies
- Housing and Legal Assistance
- Resources for Workers and the Unemployed
- Utilities Information (Internet & Cellular Service Resources, Sewerage and Water Board, Entergy)
- Mental Health Support
- Support for Businesses and Industry

We especially want to point out resources for children and families who need assistance with food and meals:
